Leicester, Mar. 12/59.

Dear Garrison,

So as you may like to copy the "Spy"s editorial of this week on the "Personal Liberty," and as I shall not be in Boston probably until Tuesday, I forward it by mail. —

Also the Transcript's notice of Wendell's State house speech, the other evening, — which may not have fallen under your eye.

The girl, from your house, came all along with me, on her way to Spencer — her route being identical with mine until my house was reached, — when I left, "in course", and the stage proceeded to Spencer (next town West) & which she wd. reach about 7½.

She was very grateful to Fanny for the help she had given her, in getting ready; and said she couldn't possibly have got to the cars, if it hadn't been for F.

A dismal, wet day — good for something, I dare say.

Truly Yours

S. May Jr.
